Comprehension Topic: The Case of the Lost Ring

Read the passage carefully:

Feluda, the famous detective, was sitting in his room in Kolkata with his cousin Topshe. The afternoon was quiet, and a gentle breeze came through the window. Feluda was reading a book while Topshe was solving a puzzle. Suddenly, the doorbell rang. An anxious man entered the room. "Good afternoon, Mr. Feluda," he said nervously. "My valuable ring has disappeared from my house. I cannot find it anywhere." Feluda listened carefully and asked in a calm voice, "Did anyone unusual visit your house yesterday?" The man thought for a moment and replied, "Yes, a repairman came to fix the cupboard." Feluda's sharp eyes shone with curiosity.

Feluda, Topshe, and the man soon reached the house. Feluda walked slowly around the room, observing every small detail. He looked at the table, the cupboard, and even the floor. Topshe whispered, "Do you think the repairman took the ring?" Feluda smiled slightly and said, "A detective must never hurry. We must look for evidence first." Suddenly, Feluda noticed a tiny scratch near the cupboard lock. He said thoughtfully, "Interesting... very interesting." The man looked surprised and asked, "Did you find something?" Feluda replied quietly, "Perhaps."

After a few minutes, Feluda opened the cupboard carefully. Inside, he found the missing ring hidden behind a small box. The man exclaimed in astonishment, "But how did it get there?" Feluda explained, "The repairman tried to steal it but heard someone coming, so he quickly hid it and left." Topshe clapped happily. "Feluda, your observation is amazing!" Feluda smiled and said gently, "A good detective must always observe patiently." The grateful man thanked Feluda many times before leaving with his precious ring.
