But his favourite books are mystery novels such as Nancy Drew, A to Z and The Famous Five. Bob's friends call him a bookworm and tease him about his habit. He is often laughed at because instead of playing video games he spends his free time reading books. While his friends tease him, his parents and teachers are proud of him. They think that reading improves a person's vocabulary and expression. One day Bob was reading a book about Dinosaurs which was really interesting. He read about the T-Rex, Raptor, Dracorex, Troodon and many more. The next week, in "Just a Minute" competition Bob had to pick up a flashcard and speak about that topic for a minute. This competition was amongst various schools in his town. To his surprise, his topic was 'T-Rex'. This made Bob very excited because he knew a lot about dinosaurs. Bob spoke very well and focused on the details. Even though he did well, he was not expecting to win. As the results were being announced, Bob felt nervous. But he got excited when his name was announced for the first place. Bob didn't only make his parents proud but his entire school was proud of him.
