

Delhi Public School Megacity, Kolkata

WORKSHEET

CLASS IV

ENGLISH LITERATURE

TOPIC: A HOME SONG

Name: _____ Class: _____ Sec: _____ Date: _____

Choose the correct option:

i) Where did the poet find the words about stone walls and iron bars?

- a) in a newspaper b) in a poet's book c) on a signpost d) in a letter

ii) According to the poem, what does NOT make a prison?

- a) wooden doors b) glass windows c) stone walls d) golden gates

iii) Why can even a small house be a happy home?

- a) it has marble floors b) it has love and care c) it has tall walls d) it has gilded walls

iv) According to the third stanza, what must "abide" in a house to make it a home?

- a) money b) love c) expensive furniture d) tall trees

v) "You'll find, where'er you roam"

What is the synonym of the word 'roam' used in the above extract?

- a) sit b) travel c) sleep d) work

vi) "Is surely home, and home-sweet-home"

What is the antonym of the word 'surely' used in the above extract?

- a) certainly b) doubtfully c) definitely d) normally vii) "And Friendship is a guest"

What is the synonym of the word 'guest' used in the above extract?

- a) enemy b) owner c) stranger d) visitor viii) "But every house where Love abides"

What is the antonym of the word 'love' used in the above extract?

- a) care b) like c) help d) hate

ix) Find out the odd one.

- | | |
|------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| a) a prison has stone walls. | b) a cage has iron bars. |
| c) a home is full of love. | d) a prison keeps people locked. |

x) Find out the odd one.

- | | |
|----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| a) love makes people feel happy. | b) friendship brings comfort. |
| c) kind words make a home sweet. | d) iron bars are strong and hard. |