

Delhi Public School Megacity, Kolkata

Class 4 Session 2026-27

Subject: Social Studies

Topic: Political Divisions of North and West India

Please note that all assignments will be completed in the presence of the subject teachers during class hours. Students are not allowed to copy these assignments into their exercise books in advance. In case of absence, students may refer to the assignments to ensure that their work is up to date.

Q1) Define the following terms:

- a) Dairy Farming - Dairy farming is the rearing of animals like cows and buffaloes for milk. Farmers take care of these animals to get fresh milk every day. The milk is used to make products like butter, cheese, and curd.
- b) Cooperative - A cooperative is an organisation or group formed by people who work together and share resources, responsibilities, and benefits to achieve a common goal — usually in areas like farming, banking, or business.

Q2) Give reason:

- a) Even though it is one Union Territory, Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Daman and Diu have different types of vegetation.

Ans) Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Daman and Diu together form one Union Territory, but they are located in different places. Dadra and Nagar Haveli lie between Gujarat and Maharashtra and have hilly land covered with forests. Daman is a coastal town on an alluvial plain. Diu is an island, separated from the mainland, with sandy and marshy land. Hence, the vegetation in this Union Territory is different because of its varied geographical features.

- b) Chandigarh is known to be the first planned city in India.

Ans) Chandigarh is known to be the first planned city in India. The city is divided into sectors. Straight roads divide the sectors and form a grid. Each sector has its own shops, gardens and other common facilities. It is also the capital city of two states (Punjab and Haryana).

Q3) Answer the following questions:

- a) Why is Jaipur referred to as the 'Pink City'?

Ans) Jaipur is known as the Pink City because its buildings are painted pink. This tradition has historical roots; in 1876, the Prince of Wales and Queen Victoria visited India. To symbolize hospitality, Maharaja Ram Singh of Jaipur had the entire city painted pink to welcome the guests. This colour scheme has been preserved ever since.

- b) Name some famous monuments of Rajasthan.

Ans) Children will write the answer on their own.

Expected Answer: Dilwara Jain Temple, Hawa Mahal, Amer Fort, Jaisalmer Fort, Chittorgarh Fort, etc.

- c) Why is Punjab known as 'the land of five rivers'?

Ans) The word Punjab is made up of two words, 'Punj' which means five and 'Aab' means water. Thus, the word Punjab means 'the land of five rivers.' The five rivers that flowed through undivided Punjab (Punjab was divided between India and Pakistan at the time of Independence) are Jhelum, Chenab, Ravi, Beas and Satluj.

d) Maharashtra is famous for the dabbawalas of Mumbai. What does this service tell you about life in Mumbai?

Ans) Children will write the answer on their own.

Expected Answer: This tells us that life in Mumbai is very fast-paced, many people travel far for work, and they rely on home-cooked food delivered to their offices. This also highlights the railway services being used by most people.

Q4) Reference to the context:

“Goa is one of the smallest states in India.”

i) Name the rivers that flow through the state of Goa.

Ans: The rivers that flow through the state of Goa are Mandovi and Zuari.

ii) Name its capital.

Ans: Panaji is the capital of Goa.

iii) What are the crops that grow in Goa?

Ans: Cashew, rice and ragi are the crops that grow in Goa. Coconuts grow along the coast in plenty.

iv) What are the various occupations that the people are involved in?

Ans: People are involved in agriculture, forestry, mining, fishing and in hotel industries.

v) Name a holy place in Goa.

Ans: The Basilica of Bom Jesus.